Security Cooperation Reform

Update for the
DISAM Curriculum Review

February, 2012

Overview

- Background

- Principal focus on speed and effectiveness of delivery of defense articles and services

- Two phases: (I) Analysis, and (II) Implementation

- Phase I report signed by SecDef in July 2011 included 58 recommendations for DoD-wide implementation

- Phase II report (pending) is largely an update on progress with implementing the

Key Initiatives and Recommendations

- Better Anticipation of Demand

    - Improvements to campaign and country-level planning process, including development of a Planners' Handbook

    - Expeditionary Requirements Generation Teams (ERGTs)

    - Strategic Planning Support Group (SPSG)

    - Special Defense Acquisition Fund (SDAF)

    - Defense Coalition Repair Fund (DCRF)

    - Country Threat Risk Assessment (CTRA)

Key Initiatives and Recommendations

- Synchronization and Prioritization

  – Equipping Prioritization Guidelines (EPG)

  – Security Cooperation Oversight

- Improved Processes/Procedures

  – Transportation initiatives

  – Compressed Rapid Acquisition, Fielding and Training (CRAFT)

  – Technology Security and Foreign Disclosure (TS&FD) initiatives

Key Initiatives and Recommendations

- Workforce Development

  - Updates to DISAM curricula

    - DISAM outreach to DAU and other institutions

  - Strengthened requirements for training/education

  - Creation of a workforce development program

  - Greater focus on skills and experience

  - Requirement for tracking SC skills and experience in personnel systems